

Lessons4Life: Together We're Stronger. Let's Support the Next Generation.

Secondary Schools, Will You Join Us? Lessons4Life invites secondary schools to participate in personal development assessment to support pupil transition.

3 Reasons to Join Lessons4Life

Identify Knowledge Gaps: Ensure that your year 7 pupils start the new academic year with a clear understanding of key personal development areas by identifying and addressing gaps in their knowledge.

Data-Driven Insights: Utilise personal development software to gather essential data that informs your teaching approaches and supports your pupils' growth.

Influence Educational Policy: Contribute your anonymised data to the Lessons4Life campaign to help advocate for enhanced training, assessment, and funding for primary schools.

Dedicated to bridging the gaps within personal development, providing targeted education, and preparing primary school children for secondary success.

What do secondary schools need to do?

- 1 Complete the 30 second form to gain access to your school dashboard
- 2 Provide 2 x 25-minute sessions for year 7 pupils to the complete Personal Development Quiz
- 3 Invite parents/carers to take part in the wellbeing barometer online survey
- 4 Analyse your pupil data to inform future PSHE lessons

Evaluate

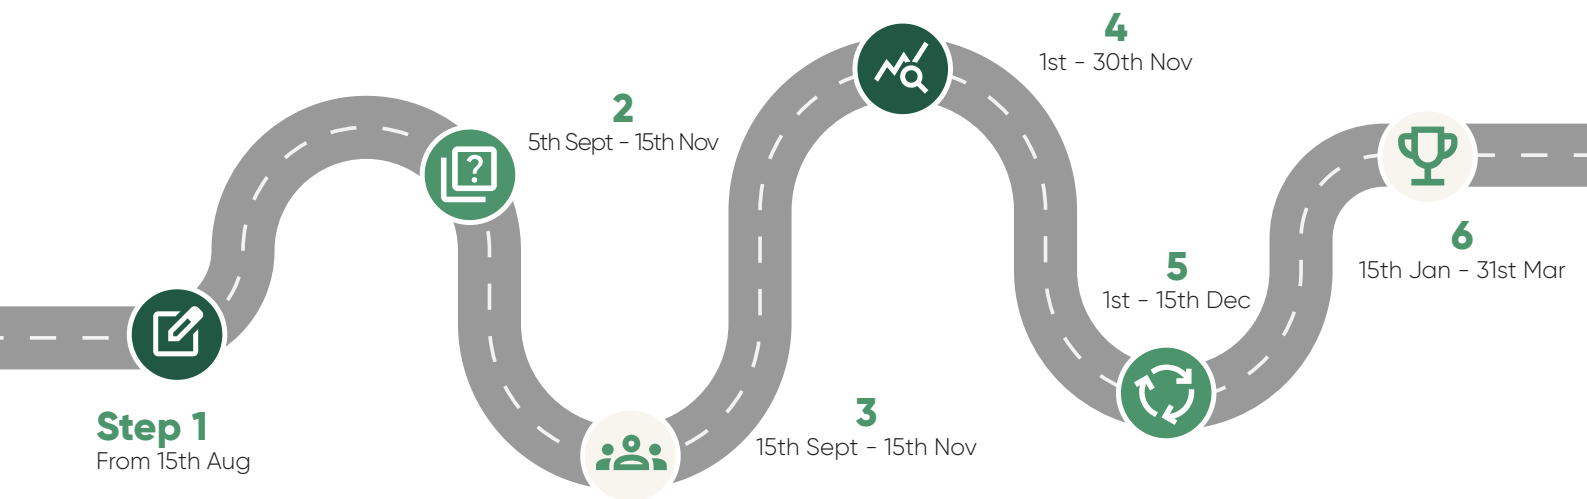

Introduce an assessment to gather children's personal development knowledge towards the end of primary school.

Educate

Find a way to rebalance primary curriculum priorities to make space for teaching personal development effectively.

Elevate

Reinvest attributable cost savings on related societal issues made in the longer term into personal development education.

1.
Secondary schools sign up open for all

2.
Secondary school pupils complete two-part personal development quiz

3.
Parents/carers complete wellbeing barometer to share current concerns

4.
Lessons4Life compile report of quiz outcomes to inform campaign

5.
Lessons4Life to share completed white paper to support change

6.
Lessons4Life to host Westminster event to share findings

Benefits for Secondary Schools

No Cost to Participate

There is no cost to your school for taking part in the Lessons4Life campaign. Assess your children across 12 areas of Personal Development.

Tailored Support

Gain access to cutting edge resources and an individual school dashboard designed to help you address the specific needs of your pupils.

Compile reports that matter

Create reports for individuals or by cohort, such as PP, SEN, EAL, and more. Gain valuable insight to support your pupils from the start.

Be a part of the change!

Support Lessons4Life in achieving their aims to evaluate, educate, and elevate all pupils before they transition to secondary education.

